Preview European Cup for Juniors in Berlin

This weekend the Junior European Cup in Berlin will take place. More than 450 participants of 31 nations will fight for the medals.

The European Cup is an important selection event for many Judoka to get to the European U20 Championships in Sofia (17-19 September) as well as the World Championships in Morocco later this year in October.

Over the last 10 years, the Hungarian young women have been the most successful. Hungary won 17 medals over the last decade, Germany however is leading by 34 wins, followed by Japan 23 wins.

Barbara Maros and Hedvig Karakas are the only ones who have won in Berlin three times. Abigel Joo (HUN) won two times, just as much as Robert Zimmermann, German's hope, who now qualified for the World Championships who won the event exactly 5 year ago.

But also other famous Judoka became winners in Berlin: Slovenians Lucija Polajder and Urska Zolnir, German Claudia Malzahn (both in the pictures) and Romy Tarangul, former World Champion Craig Fallon (GBR), Japanese Takamasa Anal and Yuka Nishida are respectful fighters who have earned their credits in the world. Follow the European Cup this weekend.

Japanese and Romanian juniors lead in Berlin

Romania and Japan lead the medal table after the first day of the European Cup for juniors in Berlin. Host country Germany won eight medals but only collected one gold medal. Hungary has always been one of the best performing countries in the rich history of the event, but only took a bronze medal by Barbara Maros who previously won three times in Berlin. Alexander Wiczerzak won the only gold for Germany. Loredana Hia won her third European Cup for juniors this year. German Karl Richard Frey however leads the tally with four wins already, we can see him in action tomorrow.

Japan and The Netherlands take gold today in Berlin

At the European Cup for juniors in Berlin Japan and The Netherlands showed their dominance this weekend. The Japanese team won four gold medals in the men's category. The Dutch surprised today with three gold medals in the women's division. It gave Japan the victory in the nation ranking for host country Germany that won three gold medals but lost six other finals.

The Dutch young women won the categories U63, U70 and U78kg. Guusje Steenhuis was the youngest winner of this weekend aged 17 followed by Loredana Ohaj who won her third European Cup this year. She equals with Karl Richard Frey (GER) who wasn't able to take the lead by his own finishing second today. Kim Polling (NED) also won her third and has the same track record as Frey as she lost the final three weeks ago in Cetnlewo but now won in Berlin U70kg.

The Japanese men's team won the two light categories and two heavy categories. Germany won U73 and U81, while vice World Champion Magomed Magomedov II won the category U90kg. No one of the gold medalists had ever won in Berlin.

All results are expected later in our results section as well as photos.
